

TankInspector	TankAssessor
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A training and competency course that will enable attendees to gain a systematic understanding about the inspection requirements during various stages of the tank service life – construction, operation, repair / maintenance and demolition.</li> <li>• Covers key principles, output and limitations of inspection methods and techniques, together with the relationship between major damage mechanisms and different tank components.</li> <li>• Appropriate for personnel in roles such as NDT inspector, Project Engineer, Project Co-ordinator, Operations Supervisor or similar and provides a bridging awareness between service and maintenance.</li> <li>• Does not enable holder to carry out the analysis of tank fitness for service.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A training and competency course that covers key features of tank design and the common problems and failure mechanisms that are associated in service.</li> <li>• Enables the sound assessment of the integrity of a storage tank and foundation, and the ability to offer guidance on the need for repair, its urgency and methods of effecting such repair.</li> <li>• A technically focused course and is suitable for Engineers responsible for tanks during their service life, that equips them with the knowledge and skills to make key critical decisions.</li> <li>• Does enable holder to carry out the analysis of tank fitness for service.</li> </ul>